I. INDOCTRINATION

1. On Monday, 23 March, 72 new persons attended the indoctrination Program. This group was almost equally divided between male and female, with 38 men and 34 women.
2. We are again glad to report that this audience reflected a high caliber of mentality. They displayed an alertness which was a welcome contrast to what we reported a few weeks ago, and the questions were solid and fundamental.
3. The Air Force set up a Project Officer (a Captain Allen) to handle the sending over of Air Force persons to our weekly Indoctrination Programs. We have worked out with Security a simple system by which we endorse the list of names received from the Air Force on the basis of the Air Force endorsement to us. In this way, the Security name-check each week will be expedited. The first four Air Force officers will be here next Monday, 30 March.

II. ORIENTATION

1. Upon receipt of official approval of the Secretary of Agriculture, reserving the auditorium for our use during the week of May 4 for the Tenth Agency Orientation Course, we sent through the customary form which guarantees that we will have the electrical air conditioning and other services as we have had in the past.

2. We are glad to officially report that [REDACTED] has already agreed to appear on the next Orientation Program, since his return to the [REDACTED] has been postponed until July 1953.

3. We have discussed with the Support Staff, OTR, the possibility of scheduling the Reserve Officers who will attend the Tenth Orientation Program to come to the Indoctrination Course on the Monday of that week, which would be 4 May, 1953. The Director of Training endorsed the suggestion at the staff meeting today.

III. SPECIAL

1. On Wednesday, 25 March, a special Indoctrination Program was conducted for 39 enlisted military personnel of the Agency.
2. Discussed with Messrs. Warner and Pforzheimer current and pending changes in the National Security Council setup.
